

Please join the Friends of Fairfax County Archaeology and Cultural Resources, Gunston Hall, and the Cultural Resource Management and Protection Branch of the Fairfax County Park Authority in hosting an archaeological symposium...

Recent Discoveries: Archaeology in the Chesapeake Region

Saturday, February 7, 2015, 9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

At Gunston Hall, Mason Neck, Virginia

Scott Strickland (St. Mary's College of Maryland):

Virtual Reconstructions: Archaeology and Probate Inventories

(Using archaeological, architectural, and documentary sources to create virtual renderings and computer generated visualizations of the colonial past)

Bernard Means (Director of the Virtual Curation Laboratory of Virginia Commonwealth University)

3D Scanning, Printing, and Painting the Past:

the Virtual Curation Laboratory and archaeology in the Middle Atlantic

Dr. Means will demonstrate 3D scanning and display printed facsimiles of artifacts.

Gregory Katz (Louis Berger Group, Inc.):

A Tale of Two Middens: Recent Investigation of Two Sites at St. Inigoes

(A study of early Jesuit and tenant material culture and diet in St Mary's County)

Eric Larsen (Archaeologist of the Germanna Foundation):

Virginia's Colonial Frontier: Jumping off from Germanna

Laura Galke (Site Director/Small Finds Analyst for George Washington's Ferry Farm):

Tressed for Success: mid 1700s Hair Care at the Washingtons

Christopher Sperling (Fairfax County Archaeologist):

Ongoing Excavations at Colchester - the Cemetery Site (44FX0704): a Model for Maximizing Data and Minimizing Impact

Act Now! $40 for members of FOFA and Docents and Friends of Gunston Hall

$40 for members of the public before February 1, 2015 ($50 afterwards)

<https://secure.ggiv.com/for/gunhal/event/463830/>