

Please join the Friends of Fairfax County Archaeology and Cultural Resources, Gunston Hall Plantation, and the Archaeology and Collections Branch of the Fairfax County Park Authority in hosting an archaeological symposium on:

Sites in Peril: Environmental and Other Challenges in Archaeology

Saturday, March 3, 2018 9:00 AM -4:00 PM

At Gunston Hall, Mason Neck, VA

The Beast is Upon Us: Sea Level Rise and the Loss of Archaeological Resources

Mike Barber, Virginia Department of Historic Resources

Understanding Coastal Processes and the Chesapeake Archaeological Record

Darrin Lowery, Smithsonian Institution

Threatened Sites and Remote Monitoring Techniques: A View from Southern Maryland

Scott Strickland, St. Mary's College

Threats to Historic Cemeteries:
An Archaeological and Historical Perspective

Elizabeth A. Crowell

Fairfax County Archaeology and Collections Branch

Looting the Past in the Potomac Valley

Stephen R. Potter,

Karen L. Orrence & Tom Gwaltney

National Park Service

Advance registration is available on the Gunston Hall website (www.gunstonhall.org).

Act Now! $45 for members of FOFA and Docents and Friends of Gunston Hall.

$55 for members of the public and $25 for students.

To receive the discounted rate, please call 703-550-9220, or email lvilliva@gunstonhall.org.

The fee includes the program and a tour of Gunston Hall.

Refreshments and a lunch will also be provided.