

Please join the Friends of Fairfax County Archaeology and Cultural Resources,
Gunston Hall Plantation, and the Archaeology and Collections Branch of the Fairfax County Park Authority in hosting an archaeological symposium entitled:

History In Transit

Saturday, March 14, 2020

9:00 AM -4:00 PM

At Gunston Hall, Mason Neck, VA

Cathrine Davis (College of William & Mary)

Sealing Across the Ocean: Lead Seals and the Study of Trade Networks and Consumerism in the Early Modern World

Chelsea Cohen (University of Pennsylvania)

Water and Wood: The Mobilization of Forest Resources in 18th-Century Ship Constructions

Sara Rivers Cofield (Maryland Archaeological Conservation Laboratory)

An Introduction to Equestrian Artifacts of the English Tobacco Colonies: Identification, Manufacturing, Trade, and Interpretation

Molly Kerr (History Revealed, Inc.)

Shopping Stories: Seeking Transportation in an 18th-Century Ledger

Christopher Sperling (Archaeology and Collections Branch-FCPA)

"...the roughest road imaginable:"

Corduroy Roads in Fairfax County during the Civil War

Advance registration is available on the Gunston Hall website

(<https://gunstonhall.org/event/archaeology-symposium/>).

Act Now! $45 for members of FOFA and Docents and Friends of Gunston Hall.

$55 for members of the public.

To receive the discounted rate, please call 703-550-9220, or email lvilliva@gunstonhall.org.

The fee includes the program, refreshments and a lunch.